CAPA presents Naples Philharmonic Youth Chorus on April 28

Young stars shine in this season's Rising Stars Series

Naples, FL — The Cultural and Performing Arts Center (CAPA) presents the second concert in its popular Rising Stars Series — Happy Music from Talented and Trained Young Voices — a vibrant range of choral music from classical to pop — performed by the Naples Philharmonic Youth Chorus. The 100-voice chorus is directed by James Cochran, and includes elementary through high school students. The concert takes place on Saturday, April 28, at 7:30 p.m. at the Wang Opera Center.

According to CAPA board member and Rising Stars Series coordinator, Steve Kutler, “Providing performance opportunities for our community’s young musicians and vocalists is an important part of the CAPA mission. It is vitally important to nourish, honor and showcase the talents of these growing young stars.”

All CAPA Rising Stars Series concerts are at 7:30 p.m. at the Wang Opera Center, 2408 Linwood Avenue, Naples. Individual tickets are $40 for adults, $10 for students/children (21 and under with valid ID) and $50 for VIP seating. VIP tickets include preferred seating and a meet-the-artists after-party. To order tickets, call (239) 775-2800 or visit www.CAPACenter.org.

The final CAPA Rising Stars Series concert of the season on Wednesday, May 2, showcases some of Southwest Florida’s rising young jazz stars with the Naples Philharmonic Youth Jazz Orchestra in Fresh Sounds of Jazz. The CAPA Rising Stars Series is sponsored by Susan Gibbons, Brunie Kunzel, Naples Best Addresses.
